EUROPEAN UNION-WESTERN BALKANS Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs

The EUWEB Module, hosted by the University of Salerno, offers a three-year specialization course in EU Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs with the Western Balkans in view of their accession to the Union. The Module introduces an innovative and multidisciplinary approach in EU legal studies, and promotes excellence in teaching EU issues related to immigration, the fight against transnational crime, police and judicial cooperation, and the protection of fundamental rights with the Western Balkans by bringing them closer to the Union.

Target groups: students, graduates, Ph.D. candidates, legal operators, judges, lawyers, law enforcement officials, civil servants, civil society, and policymakers.

Training activities: the Module consists of 58 hours per year of training courses that will take place each Friday from 2.00 p.m. to 7.00 p.m. from March to June 2020 at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law), University of Salerno (Italy).

The activities will be held by Key Staff Members and national and international experts.

These activities concern four macro-areas:

1

CROSS-BORDER
SECURITY (MIGRATION AND ASYLUM)

2

TRANSNATIONAL CRIME

3

JUDICIAL AND POLICE
COOPERATION

4

PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS
