EUWEB Legal Essays. Global & International Perspectives is an online journal that was born from the EUWEB research group's desire to make the most of and build on the scientific results achieved within the 2019–2022 Jean Monnet Module EU-Western Balkans Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs (EUWEB).

The research group seeks to disseminate the research conducted by the EUWEB Legal Observatory, at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law) of the University of Salerno (Italy), on a platform promoting the scientific work of scholars, practitioners, and stakeholders in the fields of EU and International Law, particularly in the relationship with the Western Balkans.

EUWEB Legal Essays. Global & International Perspectives publishes two online issues per year (winter and summer) of articles exploring particularly the external dimension of immigration, the fight against transnational crime, judicial and police cooperation, and the protection of fundamental rights, promoting a multidisciplinary approach in legal studies. It is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal with a broad focus on international and EU law and is open access in order to guarantee the widest possible readership in legal research.

This first number collects some of the essays presented during the second edition of Jean Monnet Module EUWEB, a.y. 2020/2021, after a positive evaluation of the Editorial Board, the Editor-in-Chief and the Managing Editor. The Journal consists also of a body of Associated Editors, an Editorial Committee, a Scientific Committee, a Reviewing Committee, all composed by highly qualified professors, both Italian and foreign, having competence in the fields of the Journal. It includes also a group of younger editorial assistants that has already developed a good expertise in the grounds.

This first issue gathers the works according to the main thematic areas of the Jean Monnet Module EUWEB focusing on some of the most recent issues concerning migration, EU anti-corruption strategies, databases and protection of human rights. Our goal is to create an understanding of the topics for the reader by discussing some of the main findings of our research activities.
